

Proposed Development

The proposed TIF #1 development is predominantly a large scale mixed-use development totaling more than 1,500,000 square feet of new construction. It is expected to facilitate the construction of both commercial and residential development.

